User Agreement

By requesting access to the Technical Safety Authority of Saskatchewan [TSASK] Amusement Ride Portal [ARP], you acknowledge and understand that other users may have access to any documentation submitted. TSASK may deny or revoke access to any person who has been granted or requested access to ARP. Any documentation provided by or with company/AHJ information may be requested to be removed or redacted by TSASK at any time. TSASK has outlined the access security for users [See ARP Access/Security Overview and Basic Usage document] and requires verification of employment/relationship for users requesting access to any company information. If employment or relationship to a requested access group changes, it is the responsibility of the requester to notify TSASK immediately to have their access amended or removed. Companies or AHJ's may ask to receive a list of approved users and request access be removed from a user in their access group. TSASK reserves the right to maintain access to all areas and documentation in ARP. Notification of changes to security or access protocols will be sent to all active users in the event they are made.

Declaration: I certify that the information provided is accurate. Checking this box and submitting this form to elevatorsafety@tsask.ca via email constitutes your authorization.
